

MOTHERS OF BOYS.

There's one way better than any other to make your boys' clothes—money-by-the-year small: find a good store and stick to it.

"But I must have bargains."

There are marked-down suits in every good store. Not every cloth we buy is as happy a selection as every other; so some are slow and we mark 'em down. Then some are so much more "taking" than others that sizes get scarce; so we mark down what's left.

And the best of that sort of a bargain is that it's a bargain for a long time.

Our Fall book is meant to help, not puzzle, people who want to buy by mail.
